

GRANDMA'S GIRLS - KATIE

Katie is our youngest part-time employee. She is also a part-time high school student. Needing a job is what brought Katie to Grandma's Pantry. Katie's job consists of packaging, stocking shelves and customer service. Her favorite part of the job is interaction with her coworkers.

Katie is very outgoing and makes friends easily. She loves to spend time with her friends and to make new friends. Her dream for the future is to be a volunteer EMT. She would also like to travel the world as a nurse so that she can learn about other cultures and help people.

When we put out the questionnaire to our coworkers, some of the answers were quite interesting and Katie's were no exception. When asked what is her least favorite product to package, her answer was ginger snaps because "they are hard to package and hard to get the right amount in the bag". (I can think of a lot worse, but that will come when it's my turn). For her favorite product to package her answer was "Dip mixes! They are fun and messy!" ☺ When asked about her favorite product as Grandma's Pantry, her answer was "hmmmm... hard question! I'm going to say Smokey Onion Cheese Spread with garlic bagel chips".

Here is a recipe that Katie would like to share with you.
