

GRANDMA'S GIRLS - MARTHA

This month, Grandma's Pantry would like to feature another one of our employees. Martha is our birthday employee for the month of November. She began working at Grandma's Pantry 7 months ago and her primary job is keeping the cheese department stocked, but she also helps with packaging, stocking shelves and customer service. Her favorite part of the job is interacting with customers and coworkers.

Outside of work, Martha is busy getting ready for her wedding in January. She enjoys "hanging out with my amazing fiancé, doing stuff with my friends, reading blogs and planning my wedding". If she could choose anywhere in the world to go, she would choose "Italy, because it's romantic and gorgeous!" Sounds like a great place for a honeymoon! While planning her wedding, Grandma's Pantry will come in handy for meeting the needs of her menu for the reception. What a great place to work at a time like this!

Martha would like to share with you one of her favorite Bible verses from Deuteronomy 14:2. "For you are a holy people to the Lord your God, and the Lord your God has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples who are on the face of the earth."

Here is a favorite recipe for you from Martha's collection.

OUTRAGEOUS CHOCOLATE CHIP COOKIES

1 cup margarine
1 cup sugar
2/3 cup packed brown sugar
1 cup peanut butter
1 tsp. vanilla
2 eggs
2 cups all- purpose flour
1 cup quick or rolled oats
2 tsps. baking soda
1/2 tsp. salt
12 oz. chocolate chips

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Beat together margarine, sugars, peanut butter, vanilla and eggs vigorously in a large bowl until creamy and well blended. Stir in flour, oats, baking soda and salt. Fold in chocolate chips. Drop by rounded tablespoons about 2 inches apart on an ungreased cookie sheet. Bake for 10-12 minutes or until golden brown.

“So, whatever you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.” (1 Cor. 10:31)
